CITY PARK RACING AGAIN

JACOBITE WINS THE CHIEF RACE OF THE DAY IN EASY FASHION.

Lens Adds to His Long List of Successes Gee Whiz in a Close Finish-Small Riders Disciplined.

New Orleans, La., December 23.—Jockey Delaby's unsatisfactory riding and his suspension by the judges for the remainder of the present meeting, furnished the chief incident at City Park, which began its second period of racing this afternoon. Delaby of late has given some timid exhibitions, but the climax was reached whenhe was astride Okenite in the fourth race and Approbation in the fifth, On both he rode poorly, restraining them until beyond any possible chance of winning.

The judges also handed down a ruling against P. Bailey for his listless effort on Vincentio in the closing race. In contrast to the mild punishment given Delaby, Bailey was suspended indefinitely.

Today's racing was attended by good weather, but withdrawals marred the program considerably, the heavy rain of yesterday causing the going to become sticky and holding. Short priced favorites were successful in three instances, Jacobite, being the easiest winner of the afternoon. His owner, C. R. Ellison, also won a purse with Grace Larsen, the receding favorite in the closing race.

Lens, confidently supported, took the feature sprint from a good band of short distance racers, which included Al Muller. The latter was the betting choice and showed his customary high order of speed for a half, but tired as if a trifle short and allowed Lens to win drawing clear. Higgin-botham, at odds-on, had to stand a mild drive through the stretch run to get home a scant half length in advance of Javanese. The surprise of this race was furnished by Abington at 100 to 1, which threatened for a period to spreadeagle the others. The closest contest came with the running of the fifth race, when Rio Grande and Mortiboy put up a spirited struggle through the stretch run to get home a scant half length in advance of Javanese, The surprise of this race was furnished by Abington at 100 to 1, which threatened for a period to spreadeagle the others. The closest contest came with the running of the fifth race, when Rio Grande and Mortiboy put up a spirited struggle thro

That Delaby is totally unfit to be ridding was plainly seen today, when he rode this afternoon with his head bandaged. He is threatened with blood poison.

Many expected the judges to take action against P. Bailey after his ride on Pedro in the third race. That horse was kept a distant trailer for a half and came with a tremendous rush in the stretch when free from restraint.

Starter Mars Cassidy, who will be the regular starter from now on, arrived six hours later than expected and did not reach the track until after the horses had gone to the post in the third race. Harry Morrissey, his assistant, handled the barrier in the first three races and dispatched the fields promptly and in perfect order. Cassidy watched the start of the third race from the judges' stand. and complimented Morrissey on his good work. Mr. Cassidy stated that Mrs. Cassidy was much improved, but is still in a dangerous condition after her trying operation.

J. Rowe disposed today of Judith MacBride on private terms to H. Brulatour.

B. J. (Kid) Weller left last night for New York, where he will spend the holidays with his family. Matt J. Winn left tonight for Louisville to spend Christmas with his family. While there he will be joined by James Butler, owner of the Empire City track. Plans for stakes and other matters pertaining to the Yonkers track will be discussed. Messrs. Winn and Butler will arrive here next Monday.

M. Daly, who is training for J. W. Colt, came on today from New York. Steeplechase jockey McInerney accompanied him.

Steeplechase jockey Archibald got, in this morning from Chicago.

T. P. Hayes came this morning from Loulsville. His horses reached here last Saturday.

H. Avis, one of the old-time guard of trainers, reached here from Kanass City and will remain for the balance of the season.

J. E. Lane made the trip with starter Cassidy from Washington and will be here for some time.

ACROBAT RUNS MILE IN FAST TIME.

Might Have Broken Record if Urged-Christmas Crowd at Track

Los Angeles, Cal., December 23.—Acrobat was on his mettle today and running to his best form, spun off a fast mile in 1:38 without being urged in any part of the race. Most of the horsemen present were of the opinion that had there been any other horse in fast enough to carry Acrobat along, the American record would have been shattered. The track was lightning fast and splendid time was made in all of the races.

The advent of Christmas week had little effect in keeping the attendance down, as by far the largest crowd of the meeting thus far was present, the increase in the attendance of women being noticeable.

Aside from Acrobat's performance, the card was somewhat void of interest.

Aside from Acrobat's performance, the card was somewhat void of interest.

The bettors had much the better of the day's speculation. Charles T. Henshall arrived today. having run down from San Francisco. He was eloquent in his praise of the new plant and will race some borses here in about two weeks.

P. T. Chinn shipped Glenecho to San Francisco today to run in the Christmas Handicap.

Certain entries of the Pasadena Stable and the entry of J. B. Dunn's Anona, have been refused on account of racing at Jamestown. Va. Affidavits will have to be sent to the New York Jockey Club and the ban lifted before the horses can start.

CANDIDATE'S VIEW OF RACING.

Lieutenant-Governor J. Y. Sanders, who is a andidate for Governor of Louisiana, in a speech he first he has made, at New Orleans last Tuesday ight, in touching upon the question of racing

Lieutenant-Governor J. Y. Sanders, who is a candidate for Governor of Louisiana, in a speech, the first he has made, at New Orleans last Tuesday night, in touching upon the question of racing, said:

"A short time ago I was asked to make public my views on horse racing in New Orleans, a subject which is at present provoking considerable discussion. I unhesitatingly stated in positive terms that racing as presently conducted is a bad thing for New Orleans and the State, and in an interview had with me on this subject on December 3 I said:

"There can be no doubt that racing. as presently carried on in this community, is demoralizing in its tendencies, subversive of good morals, and especially dangerous in its effects upon the youth of the city and State.

"Sunday racing, night racing and racing enterprises that operate all the year around are intolerable nuisances, which ought to find no place among an enlightened people.

"It behooves those who are interested in racing plants in New Orleans and throughout the State to see to it that the sport is conducted upon a clean and honest basis, that gambling and all other obnoxious features should be rigidly excluded and that the business should be so carried on as not to offend the decency and moral sense of the people. "Should this not be done, there can be no doubt that the people of the State will take speedy steps to put an end forever to racing in Louisiana.

"Under proper control and regulation, with the obnoxious features eliminated and the gambling features cut out, racing may continue to be one of the attractions of New Orleans in the winter months, but racing run mad, as has been the case in the city of New Orleans for the past few years, is certainly doomed to extinction.

"Under the best conditions the people of this community are not of one mind as to whether or not racing is a good thing for New Orleans. Under the persent conditions all are of one mind that it is a bad thing for New Orleans and for the State."

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

W. Miller, at Oakland, and Mountain, at the Fair Grounds, swelled their totals of winning mounts last week, each riding seven winners. C. Ross. at Oakland, piloted six, while R. McDaniel, C. Koerner, Notter and G. Burns scored four each. The standing of the thirty leading jockeys from January 1, to and including the racing of December 21, is as follows:

CITY PARK HAS TWO STAKE RACES.

New Orleans, La., December 23.—The two stakes for the week at City Park are the Christmas Handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth, for which weights were issued Saturday, and the Planters' Stakes, at seven furlongs. Thursday. The Christmas Handicap closed with seventy-one nominations, and of these Glorifler is assigned 128 pounds. Jack Atkin is asked to pick up 127. Tokalon, 119, Juggler, 117, Lotus Eater, 116, Right Royal, 115, First Premium, 115, Good Liuck, 115 and Old Honesty, 111. None of these is expected to face the barrier.

Of those which seem likely starters, Pasadena, with 115 pounds, is top weight. Carthage, with 114, Plantland, with 112, Tileing, with 112; Lad of Langden, with 110. Hyperion II., with 108, Temaceo, with 107, Zipango, with 106, Faust, with 104 and Yankee Girl, with 102, stand out as best. In the lightweight division Little Lighter, with 109 pounds, Besterling, with 98, Lajeunesse, with 89, and Listerine, with 86, seem to have possible chances.

SOUTH AMERICAN HORSE PRICES.

Breeders who wonder at the prices brought by yearlings in Argentina and other South American countries, where a recent sale, as reported here, showed $21,600 as top price, a total of $962,395. 2 and an average of $2,790 for 344 youngsters, should also consider South American money values. The Argentina dollar is worth about thirty-eight cents in exchange, which would reduce the reported figures to $8,208 average, $365,900 total and $960 average for the 344 yearlings. These are still astounding figures as prices go for such a number of yearlings in this country.

FRESH ENGLISH NEWS AND COMMENT.

Jockey Engagements for Next Year-Fore cast of Derby and Oaks of 1908.

London, December 10.—In the way of engagements for next year, Maher rides again for Lord Derby and Stanley House, with a second call to Lord Rosebery. Higgs, who, as in 1906, heads the list, goes on with Mr. J. C. Sullivan and then the Beck-ampton Stable, and Halsey remains first jockey to Sir Ernest Cassel, as does Bernard Dillon for the Clarehaven Lodge Stable. William Griggs, who as gone to India for the winter, will have Sir Robert Jardine for his first master, and then be claimed by John Dawson's stable, and it is quite likely Lord Carnarvon will have first call on that xeellent jockey. H. Randall, next year. Trigg has been engaged for the Manton Stable, and with Lynham going to France, as I announced before any other writer, Mr. W. Hall Walker as the heat of the Manton Stable, and with Lynham going to France, as I announced before any other writer, Mr. W. Hall Walker has the heat of the Manton Stable, and with Lynham going to France as taken the Australian, Hewitt, as his jockey. Morny Cannon, who still shows his old brilliancy when riding anything that has a chance, will, I presume, continue to ride for Lord Howard de Walden, and Sir Ernest Cochrane has secured F. Hunter as his jockey in 1908.

Warren Hill, the keen critic of the Sporting Life, in sizing up the candidates for the Derby of 1908, writes:

"If seems to me that our strongest hopes rest in London, December 10.-In the way of engagements in sizing up the candidates for the Derby of 1908, writes:

'If seems to me that our strongest hopes rest in Perrier, his majesty's remarkably fine coit by Persimmon—Amphora. All through his youthful days he was like a great bullock in bone and girth, and when Marsh began to work him in earnest it required an enormous amount to make the slightest impression on him. Five furlongs, six furlongs, miles and even a mile and a half was what the fellow required, and yet he almost refused to come on, and was always a great backward baby. He is not handsome, but big and strong, and always in all his paces a fine mover. The way he ran his race out for the Dewhurst Plate when only half trained, was a tremendous point in favor of his naking a great horse. If he does well he may improve from a stone to twenty-one pounds beyond the normal, and then he would win the Derby. If we win it next year, indeed, he should be the bero, and opponents I have greatest fear of are Mountain Apple, Royal Realm and the Kingselere best.

'Perrier. Mountain Apple and Royal Realm are bero, and opponents I have greatest fear of are Mountain Apple, Royal Realm and the Kingsclere hest.

"Perrier Mountain Apple and Royal Realm are they will have to be good."

In comment on the Oaks the same critic opines that "as matters stand I should reckon Lesbia and French Partridge more likely to stay the Derby course than Ardentrive, Araminta or Galore, whilst this year Little Goose was well behind Lesbia, and the chief danger at present appears to be Rhodora, which must be a real good one."

Colonel E. W. Baird is the only owner who can boast the distinction of having won the St. Leger and the Liverpool Grand National Steeplechase, which latter feat was accomplished when Playfair, which was trained for him by Tom Cannon at Stockbridge, took the prize in 1888. His Majesty, however, has beaten that fine record into fits, for, as Prince of Wales, he in 1900 won the Grand National with Ambush II. and the Two Thousand Guineas, Derby and St. Leger with Diamond Jubilee.

Sceptre was beaten on twelve occasions—as a two-year-old once, in the Champagne Stakes at Doneaster (won by Game Chick); as a three-year-old six times, in the Lincolnshire Handicap (won by St. Maclou), the Derby (won by Kizil Kourgan), the Coronation Stakes at Ascot (won by Doctrine), Sussex Stakes at Goodwood (won by Royal Lancer), and the Park Hill Stakes at Doneaster (won by Ard Patrick): as a five-year-old three times, in the Coronation Cup at Epsom (won by Zinfandel), and in the Gold Cup (won by Throwaway) and Hardwicke Stakes (won by Rock Sand), at Ascot.

Lord Coventry states that in his opinion there is no country equal to Ireland for the purpose of breeding horses. His lordship attributes the superiority of Irish horses to the suitability of the clinase. His lordship attributes the superiority of Irish horses to the suitability of the clinase of popinion quoted above is naturally intensely gratifying to the Irish breeding interests. It is understood that Dimeford is on offer to the German government. The horse was not submitted with Mr with Mr. Reid Walker's lot for sale at Newmarket. Famous old St. Simon is remarkably well and wonderfully full of fire and go, although he will be twenty-seven years old in less than a month. Danny-Maher is staying with George Williamson, the well-known cross-country rider at Nottingham, and is spending his holiday hunting with Lord Harrington's pack.

A letter just received from Austria states that all nominations to Wombwell for next season have been eagerly taken up, and many breeders in the dual monarchy think the son of Isinglass a better looking horse than Slieve Gallion. Wombwell, it will be remembered, was sold recently by the Duke of Portland to the Baltazzi Stud.

ORMONDALE YEARLINGS SELL WELL

The sale of the sixteen yearlings sent to the Oakland track from Ormondale Stud to be sold last Thursday was considered successful in view of the present financial condition by W. P. Magrane, who conducted the sale from the auction block. The most spirited bidding was between Harry Mack and William St. Vincent for the bay colt by Ossary—Lovelight, half-brother to Cloudlight, Ed Lilburn and L. C. Ackerley which Mack started at $500, but stopped at $1,350. The sales, prices and purchasers were:

HILDRETH LEAVES OAKLAND

GOES TO SANTA ANITA TO SECURE BETTER CHANCES TO TRAIN.

Massa Wins from Legatee in a Close Fit-Belle Kinney Runs Away from Opponents-College Widow Scores.

Oakland, Cal., December 23.—Aside from the racing itself the most important developments at Oakland today were contained in the announcement that S. C. Hildreth had decided to transfer his training operations to Arcadia, and would race only in important stake fixtures on the local track. The owner of Uncle, Meelick, Rapid Water and other turf stars has also acquired first call on the crack lightweight jockey, Eddie Dugan, for the remainder of the California season. Hildreth will leave immediately for the Santa Anita track with all of his best horses of all ages and Dugan will accompany him.

Two carloads were shipped south during the forencop. Trainers are seriously handicapped by the local muddy track conditions and with no immediate prospects of relief from this state of affairs, Hildreth concluded after looking the ground over, to make the perpetual summer course his turf headquarters for the winter. Hildreth's horses, however, will be specially prepared for their New California Jockey Club Stake engagements and will be sent on especially to fill them from time to time, in deference to Dugan's own wishes C. E. Durnell placed him in Hildreth's charge.

An improved Monday card was decided today. The weather and attendance were up to the mark, but the racing was less formful than on any day during the past fortnight. Technically only one favorite rewarded her backers and that was College Widow at 2 to 5 in the closing race.

Massa, winner of the fourth, the best race on the program, carried probably as much money as any horse that has started here this season, Miller's ride on Colonel White evoked deservedly adverse criticism. The best that the champion jockey could do today was in a four-horse on Dareington, an odds-on favorite.

Jockey Eddie Lynch, who will probably ride in the east for Frank J. Farrell next season, scored twice, one third and two times unplaced out of five attempts.

Belle Kinney, winner of the second race, was bid up from $$400 to $$00 by W. Hawke and bought in.

May Amelia was claimed by H

BELGIAN RACING AND RIDING.

Belgium is making considerable headway as far as racing is concerned, and this year the gathering in Park Paddocks for the December sales has been quite cosmopolitan. As far as flat racing is concerned, there were 160 days, or twelve more than last year, and the amount of the added money came to $499,420, increased by the entries and forfeits to $567,160. Talion, the Belgian-bred sire, stands at the head of the list, showing how he has improved during the past two years. His progeny have won $70,430 under both rulings, and he has for the time being taken the position formerly held by Trazegnies, which, with Magistral, is the only Belgian sire which has won over $20,000 during the past year. The largest slice of the cake has fallen to the stable of M. Brugmann, whose enterprise has been amply rewarded and has placed Sharpe, who trains the horses carrying his colors, at the head of the list of trainers as having led in 118 winners, while Breze, who trains for Mr. Ribeaucourt, the Robaix sportsman, has had to be content with securing ninety-two brackets for his owner, G. Ashman and J. Stanton come third and fourth with eighty-six and sixty-five winners respectively, and then a fair average is shown by the Belgian trainers. Volckaert, Kelpe, Vandensteen and Douliere.

Heapy, the stable jockey of M. Brugmann, never in want of a ride when he is free, naturally holds the prize he deserves at the head of the list of winning jockeys, with 184 brackets, catching the eye of the judge 124 times as second, and eighty-seven as third, while on 225 occasions he only captured a duck's egg. The next most successful rider was T. Miller, with 121 wins, eighty-one seconds, and sixty-five thirds out of 381 mounts. F. Slade is third, and then come in order Kerchove, Shatwell, Killean and George Stern, the French jockey, who has ridden 150 times in Belgium and shows an excellent average of thirty-four wins, thirty-three second place, and twenty-seven third.

BETTING: JIM KEENE: JOHN GATES.

It is known, says a New York gossip, that when John W. Gates was doing his heaviest plunging on the Jockey Club tracks last season, James R. Keene tried to induce him to cut down his betting. On this occasion Keene called Gates aside and in fatherly tones said:

"John, wouldn't you have as much pleasure betting $1,000 on a horse as when bettling $20,000?"

Gates looked him in the eye and replied: "Mr. Keene, would you have the same pleasure if you bought 100 shares of stock instead of 100,000 and they went up ten points?"

This was too much for Mr. Keene. He smiled at Gates, shook his head and walked away.

THE ONECK STABLE YEARLINGS.

New York, December 23.—Trainer William Karrick of the Oneck Stable has besides Cohort, Ben Fleet, Sheepskin and Ariel, three yearling colts. two fillies and two geldings in his charge at Sheepshead Bay which will be two-year-olds the first of the month. The best of them is probably the chestnut gelding, Watch, by Ornament—Gaze, which H. K. Knapp bred at his up-state farm. The breeding of the seven yearlings are as follows: Watch, ch. g. by Ornament—Gaze.
Bay colt, by Greenan—Dashing.
Bay filly, by Ben Strome—Dalsy Chain.
Bay gelding, by Fatherless—Ethie.
Brown filly, by Herbert—Persuader.
Chestnut colt, by Woolsthorpe—Fashionable.
Chestnut gelding, by Inflexible—Intimidation.

NO ENGLISH DERBY BETTING.

It seems incredible to old stagers that we should be within hall of Christmastide without any wagering on the Derby having been recorded, says London Sporting Life. Nevertheless, this is an absolute fact. The Jockey Club senson just ended has shown more plainly than ever that ante-post wagering is almost a thing of the past as regards many of the handicaps that used formerly to provoke plenty of betting long anterior to the day of their decision.

TWO PROMINENT WINNING STABLES

What the Horses of T. Hitchcock, Jr., and R. T. Wilson, Jr., Won This Year.

Considering baffling ill-fortune in respect to Salvidere, Good and Plenty, Paul Jones, Hylas and others, the stable of T. Hitchcock, Jr., made excellent returns this year. Salvidere was its principal money-carner and had this splendid young horse been sound and fit throughout the racing season, it is quite reasonable to assert that his winnings would have been at least double what they were. The breakdown and enforced destruction of the champion steeplechaser, Good and Plenty, was another severe misfortune. In 1906 the stable was second in the list of winning owners with $119,805, while in 1907 its aggregate of stakes and purses won and horses contributing were as follows:

Horse, Sts. 1st. 2d. 3d. Unp. Won. Buckman 16 1 1 4 10 $1,310

R. T. Wilson, Jr. has figured respectably in the list of winning owners for a number of years past and did very well with his horses in 1907, winning more than he did last year, when his stable return was $56,960. He had no real star in racing, but a number of useful young horses which battled sturdly and successfully for their owner. Dolly Spanker, Falcada and Monfort did best for him financially; Gallavant, Beaucoup, Alauda, Adoration, Aletheuo, Red River and Sanguine also more than paying their expenses. With some reported promising yearlings in nand, the stable may even do better in 1908. Its winners and winnings this year were as follows:

Out of a letter from Buenos Ayres, W. P. Pond, of Sports of the Times, gets this story: "Independence Day, the year before last, there was a meeting at Arias, near the Rosario Railway. One of the jockeys was Mario Oliva, the race being three times round the little, old-fashioned course. The flag fell, the horses started and the second time they passed the stand Oliva was a dead man, anchored straight in the deep hollowed saddle, rigid with a death 'rigor' until the race was ended, and the horse turned to come back to scale. At the turn the corpse fell from the horse's back to the ground."

SOUTHERN WORK-OUTS WORTHLESS.

Frank M. Kelly, the most reliable of clockers at New Orleans, wired Daily Racing Form yesterday that the tracks at the Crescent City were in such shocking condition that work-out times were only delusive. "In addition to this," says the dispatch, "owners and trainers are fitting their borses in races, so that I shall discontinue work-outs until such time as they are worth sending."

BELMONT YEARLINGS DOING WELL.

The Belmont yearlings in trainer Whalen's string at Belmont Park are described as follows:

An imported bay gelding by Collar, the sire of Frank Gill., out of Mem Sahib, by Ladas, has plenty of size and is a particularly good actioned colt, giving the impression that he would race well over a long distance.

A bay colt by Octagon—Amicitia, by Hastings, has much substance and should develop into a grand-looking colt. He worked a quarter in better than 26 seconds against the wind.

The chestnut colt, by Hastings—Lady Rosemary, by St. Blaise, is a robust fellow. He is patterned after his sire and will probably show well in any kind of going.

after his sire and will probably show well in any kind of going.

A smooth-turned one is the bay colt by Hastings—Lady Madge, by Rayon d'Or, It is very likely that this colt will come to hand early and should race to advantage during the spring meetings.

A sweet bay filly is the daughter of Hastings—Filttermouse. Her dam is a sister to the good campaigners, Kinnikinick and Fly by Night.

The bay filly by Trenton—Queen's Bower, is a half-sister to Queen's Souvenir. She might be termed a big little filly and has the appearance of a good doer.

A half-sister to Amberjack is a chestnut filly by Don de Oro—Aurata, by Bend Or. Not as impressive as her stable companions.

The filly by Hastings—Fond Hopes, by St. Blaise, is a bay and has size and substance. She showed a high turn of speed when tried, and it is expected she will race well.

A bay filly by Hastings—Fidena, by Rayon d'Or, was also well tried, and the indications are that she will come to hand early.

GREAT FRENCH TURFMAN GONE.

The death of Count Louis de Turenne removes from the French turf one of its most distinguished personalities. When in the seventies and eighties Baron Finot was carrying all before him on the steeplechase courses, his victorious stable was under the direction, especially in connection with its financial operations, of the Count de Turenne, who was one of the most competent men that ever entered upon the business of racing. On all points of racing law he was a great authority and he made steeplechasing his special study. The present flourishing condition of the Steeplechase Society of France, of which, with the Prince de Sagan, he was one of the founders, is in a considerable measure due to his intelligent and resourceful efforts.

Before his army career, he, however, developed a keen interest in sporting affairs, and in partnership with Count Hellez Clapareda (under the assumed name of "Comte Oscar"), he had run several horses, the most notable being Le Roi Barbu, Billet Doux, Flor d'Aliza, Montretout, Ceramique (winner of the Prix de la Palouse at Chantilly in 1867), and The Rogue, fourth in the Grand Steeplechase at Baden Baden, on which occasion he was ridden by M. F. Roy, who is now the official starter for the Societe des Steeple Chases de France.

The Count de Turenne often used to ride himself,

France.

The Count de Turenne often used to ride himself, generally wearing the blue and scarlet jacket of the partnership. He was elected a member of the committee of the Societe d'Encouragements in 1879 and a steward in 1897. By his ability, his authority, and his affability he became a power, and won the esteem and confidence of all.

GREAT MEXICAN RACING PLANS.

GREAT, MEXICAN RACING PLANS.

San Francisco, Cal., December 21.—About the most interesting thing heard in the gossip of turf affairs here this week is the news of a big race track promotion in the City of Mexico. From what the owners and breeders at Emeryville, Oakland, hear concerning the matter. a first-class racing plant, costing upward of $500,000 and equipped in the most modern style, will be erected in the Mexican capital within the next eighteen months. Moreover, a jockey club having jurisdiction and government over thoroughbred racing by virtue of special legislation toward that end will direct the racing on the new course and upon other courses which it is thought will naturally spring into existence in the City of Mexico and neighboring cities in the course of time. Capitalists, foremost in commercial and social circles in the ancient city, are ahead of both the new race tracks and the proposed jockey club. The intention is to place the Mexican turf upon the same plane and status as racing is found in New York and under the French Jockey Club on the Parisian courses. The men behind the idea of creating a turf for Mexico desire racing for the social and sporting attributes behind. Strange as it may seem, the project is not being urged because of the financial possibilities of the scheme. Not a dollar of stock is to be bartered in this rountry. However, a determined effort will be made to bring an adequate number of horses, owners, jockeys and officials from the United States to properly set in motion the machinery of the big project.

While there has been no great fanfare about the thing, the fact that carnest and substantial measures had been already taken toward launching racing in the great empire to the south of us was learned this week during the visit here of Francis de Carrerro, the noted ranch king and timber limit proprietor of Guadegallpo, Mexico. Carrerro, though a young man, is a millionaire several times over. Five years ago he was a student at the University of California and a noted base

One would think to read the sloppy daily stories poout C. R. Ellison and his bad luck and fortune at New Orleans, that the Chicago plunger was on the verge of financial and mental collapse instead of being particularly able to care for himself.

After being second on the list of winning stallions in Germany for four years in succession, Hannibal this season came out first with a total of $108,675. Saphir finished second with $86,295, Calveley, third with $54,415, Saraband, fourth with $44,470, Joyful fifth with $28,115 and Gallinule sixth with $26,865.

F. W. K., Chicago. Will investigate the matter. R. K., Peoria, Ill. Distances are at the bettor's risk and errors do not affect the betting.

M. F., St. Louis, Mo. It is a matter you will have to figure for yourself by close observation.
C. T. H., Louisville, Ky. The horse being in the starter's control when he ran away, bets stood.

James S., Chicago, The horses were coupled because trained by the same man and the bet stands.

C. E. S., St. Louis, Mo. Not at all. It was no case of misspelling. It was the old horse Military that was entered and not Military Man, although it was the latter name that came in the entries. Bets on Military Man were draws. Military Man is by St. George—Fanfare and Military is by Albert—Leda.

Bellwether closed a big gap and was going fast at the end. Pedro ran fairly well. Refined ran poorly and was never a serious factor. Arch Oldham retired after showing a brief flash of speed and can do much better.

Went to post at 3:53. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Rio Grande, running to his best form and in forward contention from the start, made a fast move a ter turning into the stretch and got up in the closing strides. Mortiboy showed superior speed and seemed a certain winner after going three-quarters, but tired slightly in the closing drive. Approbation, much the best, was restrained sharply and taken back for the first three-quarters, went wide into the stretch and fluished gamely on his own courage. The Clansman was away poorly, but closed a gap steadily and would have been a sharp factor with an even send-off. Rebounder tired after running well for seven furlongs. Husted tired in the last quarter. The winner was entered for $1,500; no bid.

The Christmas Handicap. This borse has had a special prep for this race, and my man informs me can't lose unless he falls down. I will advise a plunge bet to win. This is one of the hest things I have had this season.

THURSDAY, I will hand out a horse that has worked a mile over the Arcadia Track better than 1:41, and is a superior mud runner.

SATURDAY. A horse that has been run for work last three outs goes for the money and will be a long price.

NOTICE!

The elevator of building will stop running at noon Christmas day.
